

Environmental Health Summer Intern

The Eastern Highland Health District (EHHD) is seeking an environmental health student intern for the 2018 summer period.

The student intern receives direct supervision and training from the Chief Sanitarian. Example of duties include: conducts water sampling of public bathing areas; conducts water sampling of potable water sources; assists in performing environmental health office duties; assists in establishing environmental health data bases, report forms, templates and other computer related activities; assists with environmental health record keeping; conducts special environmental health related office projects as needed; provides statistical and narrative reports of activities as needed; assists in monitoring existing questionable properties.

No experience needed. Hourly wage available. This is a part-time position. Candidate must be available to work Mondays & Tuesdays from May 21 through August 28th. Enrollment in an undergraduate level program related to biology, medicine, engineering, environmental sciences or public health related field of study recommended. Candidate must possess a valid driver's license.

Individuals interested in scheduling an interview can call the Main Office, at 860-429-3325, Monday through Wednesday between 8:15 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Thursday 8:15 a.m. thru 6:30 p.m., and Friday between 8:15 a.m. and 12:00 p.m.