

Public Health Intern

The Eastern Highland Health District (EHHD) is seeking a student intern.

The student intern receives direct supervision and training from the Office Manager. Position will support local health department response to the pandemic. Example of duties include: assists in performing public health office duties; support staff for vaccine clinic; assists with public health record keeping and report; conducts special public health related office projects as needed; may assist in conducting water sampling of public bathing areas.

No experience needed. Hourly wage available. This is a full-time, paid student internship. Enrollment in an undergraduate or graduate level program related to biology, medicine, engineering, environmental sciences or public health related field of study recommended. Candidate must possess a valid driver's license.

Position open till filled.

Individuals interested in scheduling an interview can email the Office Manager at brosseaum@ehhd.org. Please attach your resume, and provide a return telephone number.